THE THALES MAILS.

ONE DAY LATER FROM LONDON.

Some stir has been caused at Berlin by a series of robberies committed at the foreign Embassies. On Sunday night burglars entered the house of Lord Odo Russell, the British Ambassador, and broke open a writing-desk. A robbery was attempted four days ago at the Austrian Embassy, but in this case the thieves were disturbed before they could effect their object. Last week a considerable quantity of plate was stolen from the Belgian Legation.

There have been very serious food riots in the district below Darjeeling to Titalea. The military have been summoned.

Several persons have been killed and wounded.

The rainy season is promising over Northern India, including Tirhoot.

The Japanese expedition against Formosa consists of four European-built frigates and 15,000 men.

It is expected that the Empress of Austria will go to Brighton for a course of sea bathing in the middle of July.

A Democratic Governor has been elected for the State of Oregon by a majority of 400 over his Republican competitor.

There are indications that the Comanche and Cheyenne Indians threaten war against the whites, particularly in Texas.

The Spanish Government has assured Marshal Macmahon that Marshal Serrano has entered into no negotiations with the object of setting a German prince on the throne of Spain.

In the Commons a debate arose on a motion by Mr O'Shaughnessy, declaring that the state of intermediate education in Ireland was unsatisfactory.

Sir M.H. Beach promised most careful consideration to the subject.

The house was counted out at half-past eight, just as Mr Newdegate was proceeding to move for an address for the laws, &c, governing convents and monasteries in foreign countries.

The American pilgrims arrived at Rome, and are staying at various hotels.

Bishops Dwenger and Theard waited upon Cardinal Antonelli to express the desire of the American pilgrims to pay a visit to the Pope. They were received by His Holiness the total number present being about 200. Monsignore Dwenger addressed the following speech to the Pope:—

"You see at your feet sons of yours from the West, who have dreaded neither sea nor distance in their endeavour to see the Father of All the Faithful, the Pontiff most exalted by his patience, his hope and faith in God. We have come to proclaim before the whole world our devotion to you, the Infallible Pastor of the Church, the centre of the unity of our faith. This is the long-wished-for day when we can receive your blessing, not only for ourselves, but for all those who at a distance pray to God with tears for you in your prison.

The Pope replied:—

"Amid the darkness of the world, this is a ray of light. The enemies of the Church are numerous, but great consolations reach me from the Old and New Worlds, where the true faith has been marvellously developed. Still a great part of the world is occupied by false religions, and we must pray God to bring all back to the true faith."

The Pope afterwards descended from his throne and passed before the pilgrims, giving them his hand to kiss.

The pilgrims have decided to visit the seven Basilicas. On Thursday the Pope will give them the Communion. They will afterwards go to Albano, Frascati and Tivoli. It is not true that they met with a hostile demonstration at Civita Vecchia.

LONDON LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

June 8th, 1874.

By this steamer, the Boyne, Mr. J. C. Simpson goes out to B. Ayres as a contractor for a portion of the City Improvements Works. Mr. Smithers of the London and River Plate Bank with his family are amongst the passengers.

There is a fair show of returned Buenos Ayreans knocking about the parks and streets of London. Some of them seem to freely enter into the spirit and enjoyment of London life; others again, complain of the heat, the distances, the dust, the food, and want to be back in the Liffey, the Neva, the Boyne, or whatever it is that brought them, and will take them again through the old routine; the niggers at Saint Vincent, the bay of Rio Janeyro, the landing at the Mount and the final rest and the 'City of Tramways'. That we are creatures of habit has been remarked before; but it is only quite lately that the startling revelation has been made that we are likely to remain so in the life to come. You read the Fortnightly, and will have seen the articles of the scientific traveller, Mr. Alfred Russell Wallace, in support of the new fangled science. In allusion to the communications from the Spirit-world, Mr. Wallace tells us that nothing is more common than for religious people at 'Seances' to ask questions about future life. In reply they never get more than opinions, or more frequently the statement that they, the spirits, have no more actual knowledge of those subjects than they had while on earth. If all their thoughts and belongings are in Buenos Ayres; there they may stick until the time arrives for a new development.

Another remarkable article in this month's Fortnightly is one on 'Agricultural Wages in Europe,' by Mr Cliffe Leslie. He shows that the agitation in certain counties in England is no local phenomenon, but part of a general movement, which has already resulted in many parts of France, Belgium and Germany in higher wages.

The Telegraph announces the sale of the Argentine horses on Saturday last. The three best in size and figure were sold as follows; a piebald, 43 guineas; a black for 36 guineas; and a bay, although in the opinion of many as good as the others, was knocked down for 34½ guineas. The remainder were disposed of at from 29 to 36 guineas, according to their merits; but it is generally believed that if the animals had been 16 hands high and broken in for harness, they would have fetched from 10 to 12 guineas more. The attendance was good, there being, at a rough calculation, about 150 persons present, among whom were many city merchants, thus testifying to the great interest which had been aroused, not only amongst agriculturists, but also commercial circles, in regard to the new and promising trade set on foot by a few enterprising Argentines.

The prices mentioned in the Telegraph are certainly very high, and particularly when, as it appears from the paragraph, the horses were sold at auction. If you can get 40 guineas for 'tropilla' horses it certainly might pay to commence rearing larger animals and training them for this market. I hope in my next letter to be able to verify the statements in the Telegraph, and find out what "Argentine Horses" mean. I have already reported the sale of horses per North, and am curious to discover what this second batch may be.

It is supposed that the Bank rate will soon be 2 per cent, but nothing seems to revive trade or speculation. The lock-out of the labourers in the agricultural districts is supposed to affect business; but it is quite evident that the causes are beyond the ken of the city economists.

The dulness in trade is not greater than dulness in the political world. The licensing bill of the new government which is after all a copy of the old bill of Lord Aberdare; the Scotch patronage bill and the Ritualist bill awake a certain attention, but people have made up their minds to put aside politics till next year.

You often hear the question asked how is it that the Conservatives obtained so unexpected a majority in the last elections?

There is a passage in McCaulay which refers to the old strife between Whigs and Tories. The passage is worth quoting, as follows—"It is also to be noted that these two parties have never been the whole nation, nay, that they have never, taken together, made up a majority of the nation. Between them has always been a great mass which has not steadfastly adhered to either, which has sometimes remained inertly neutral, and has sometimes oscillated to and fro. That mass has more than once passed in a few years from one extreme to the other, and back again. Sometimes it has changed sides merely because it was tired of supporting the same man; sometimes because it was dismayed at its own excuses; sometimes because it expected impossibilities, and had been disappointed. But whenever it has leaned with its whole weight in either direction, resistance has for the time been impossible.

With a few allowances for the difference between modern Conservatism and Liberalism and the old parties Macaulay speaks of, it would be difficult to give a neater explanation of the late elections.

There is no news this evening of any kind. You can make the most of what the Boyne takes you to-morrow morning.

French politics seem to be at a dead lock for the moment. The situation can scarcely unravel without some decided trial of strength between the different parties.

A TRIP IN TYCHO BRAHE.

Southampton June 3rd 1874.

Dear STANDARD,

We left Montevideo May 1st for Santos and had 60 hours of a race with the R. M. S. Tiber, until the latter took her course for Rio. We admired the beautiful scenery of Santos, its sleepy inhabitants, and the shoals of lazy sharks prowling about during our two day's stay. Starting for Rio we had a head wind and heavy sea. Rio bay delighted us as it does everybody with its marvellous scenery, gardens and palms, its narrow streets glittering at night like an Arabian Alcazar. For ugly women, broken-down horses, fine mules, and narrow streets Rio has perhaps no equal.

Leaving Rio we had a few more cabin passengers, including an English clergyman, and 40 second-class for Lisbon. Stiff breeze, heavy sea, Tycho doing 11½ knots an hour. Next morning about 2 o'clock, all sails set and ship going 11½ knots, we were all startled from our sleep by the cry "Man overboard," followed by shouts of "Help, help,!" and then the clear voice of Capt. Miller "Stop her; out boats; back her."

It seems my son Willy and another passenger had been arguing about the motion of the screw, and the former leaning out lost his balance and fell into the water, calling out loudly for help.

He caught the patent log-line, but could not hold it, we were going so fast, and came up a long way astern; then several life-buoys were thrown out, but all far short of him. Four minutes had not elapsed ere a six oared boat was pulling for him, but we soon lost sight of him altogether. This was a moment of dreadful suspense, the clergyman, doctor and Miss Philips trying to encourage my daughter. Everyone strained his eyes to see if there was yet hope. Some thought the sharks had pulled him down, others feared his strength would give way before the boat could come up to him, although he was a good swimmer. One gentleman said the delay was useless and that the steamer ought to proceed on her voyage. I implored of him a little patience, that my son was a first-class swimmer and would probably yet be saved.

We saw the boat pull for an object in the water. "Hurrah! they've found him." But no, it is only one of the life-buoys. Then some of the passengers said that as he had heavy clothes and boots on he must be drowned by this, and all delay was only time lost. Just then Mr. McDonald said, "I see him swimming well out of the water. If the boat can't see him he sees the boat. They see him; they have him!"

Well did Capt. Miller and his gallant first officer earn the congratulations showered on them while my son began pulling off his wet clothes as it nothing had happened. Mr. McDonald assured me the escape was miraculous, as so many seamen are drowned by falling overboard: he added that if swimming-schools were established by Government many a man would be able to hold up like my son.

Willy says that when he found himself in the sea for the first time, between two waves, he felt a little confused and swallowed some salt water, but soon swam so easily that he began to think of his fate. Seeing the steamer go away he believed it could not stop for anyone, and gave up hope of rescue. He turned on his back, but the water in his clothes was heavy and pained his joints. Changing position he got relief, then felt fear and regret, and said his prayers. When he felt the fear had left him, although no earthly hope seemed to remain, he heard a cry that cheered him. It was far off, so he changed his position, and saw the boat a long way off when it rose on a wave, and the steamer coming towards him: he felt he was saved. It was some time before the boat saw him. There can be no doubt that he owes his life, under Heaven, to his knowledge of swimming.

Why does not everyone learn to swim? You have only to lie on your back, your head well back, look at the sky, bend in your back, don't struggle or try to keep your head out of water, and you will float like a log of wood. Why does not Mr. Posadas or other practical Argentine urge the Government to establish swimming schools?

Willy was not only most grateful to the sailors who saved his life, but also became a great favorite with them all, and we had a most pleasant run to Bahia, where we took in some very agreeable passengers, including Rev. Mr. Caly, Consular chaplain, who was returning to Europe with his family; this gentleman is a great friend of Bishop Stirling. We also took Rev. Mr Sendall and family; Mr Sendall is rector of Tilton, married to a rich lady of Modena, who is in ill-health and was accompanied by her sister Miss Blondi, in weak health.

A funny incident occurred at Bahia. Mr Sutor went ashore and a breeze springing up no boat could come off. Poor Mrs. Sutor was inconsolable, the Tycho whistling for two hours for the agent. At last the sea calmed down, and the agent came with Mr Sutor, the latter looking very crest-fallen.

Four days after leaving Bahia a sad scene took place, Miss Blondi's heart disease proving fatal, which cast a gloom over the ship. The last mournful rites were performed by 3 clergymen, and the remains consigned to the deep.

After this our passage was a pleasant one, the weather fine, passengers agreeable and united, captain and officers most attentive. At Lisbon we took in a Portuguese priest, making 4 clergymen aboard, and reached Southampton to-day, sorry to part from each other, and to leave the good ship Tycho and her courteous captain, to whom we made the following address:—

"Southampton, June 9, 1874.

"To Capt. Miller s.s. Tycho Brahe,

"Dear Sir,

"A general feeling exists among the passengers that we should not part without giving a united expression of thanks to one in whom we have found careful guidance associated with very pleasant intercourse. To some of us the voyage has been marked with domestic affliction; but this, we can truly affirm, has been alleviated by your kind and thoughtful care. Allow us then, dear Sir, to thank you warmly for the comfort and pleasure we have found in your well-ordered ship—to express our sincere hope you may soon be reunited to your own family in health and happiness, and that it will be with real joy in a future voyage we shall find ourselves under your command.

We are,
Dear Sir,
With all respect, your sincerely obliged servants—

E Sendall, Rector of Silton; Anne Sendall, G A Caley, British Consular Chapl in, Bahia; Fanny E Caley, John H Gwyther, Clk; Richard Gibbings, Alex. Sutor, John P Gregory, A E Jones, J M Gibbings, S Phillips, W Gibbings, W Honeyman, M Smith, J B Kinsey, with some 40 other passengers.

We are going to spend some days in the Isle of Wight. You will be glad to hear my son's health is quite re-established.

RICHARD GIBBINGS.

MONTEVIDEAN LETTER.

July 8th.

We have had a very dull day: no arrivals from yours, and the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's steamer the Puno has not as yet put in an appearance, though she is momentarily expected from the West Coast. The R.M.S. Boyne left for your port this morning. I am indebted to Mr. Drew, the agent of this line, for his kindness in taking up your newspapers last night and also the letters.

On the Bolsa every one looked cold. The sun shone, but we had a kind of a drizzling rain nearly all day, that reminded me of the old adage that 'when it rains whilst the sun shines old maids get married.' The sales today were on a small scale and amounted to the following:

Deuda Interna, 2nd Series.
20,000$ at 60¾ per cent. for end of month with option of 20,000 more
20,000 at 61¼ for end of month.
50,000 at 62 do.
Fundado Shares.
6,500 at 90 for cash.
Fomento Territorial.
300 shares at 30 cash.

Exchange is very dull, probably consequent on there being no steamer for Europe, and it may be quoted at 51 to 50⅞d for London, 5.36 fr, for France.

Produce remains dull, but the Telegrafo Maritimo of last night gives the sale of the remainder of the hides at Messrs. Milan's saladero at Mercedes, at 87 rials put on board, 3000 matadero at 77, and 1000 horsehides at 27 rials per 30 lbs; the shipping expenses of these sales to be divided.

The British brig Wolfville was cleared by Mr J R Schwartz for New York yesterday, and took the following cargo, shipped by:

Batos, Stokes and Co, 10,695 dry hides
Couras, Stewart and Co, 6,579 do
Proudfoot, Hall and Co, 2,440 do
Making a total of 19,714.

The Norwegian brig Marie has been chartered to load a cargo of bones and boneash at Paysandu at 25s and 5 per cent primage.

A well known storekeeper was attacked the night before last, on his way home to his quinta, by three men, with the intention of robbing him; but with true English agility and a very good knowledge of boxing, he 'paved' the whole three and escaped without damage. Night robbers are knocking about in large numbers at present, and it is almost dangerous to be out after dark without being well armed. A burglary took place in the house of a poor coal merchant whilst he was absent, the thieves making off with about 300 dollars in cash, and are not to be found.

According to the latest newspapers received, our United States friends are about to build a steamer that will be ten times larger than the Great Eastern, and will contain a theatre, a circus and a wild beast show. The next thing we are going to have is a floating railway from New York to Liverpool.

We expected to see the Ristori troupe from yours this morning, but were disappointed by the non-arrival of any steamer. This celebrated actress is to give four performances at the Cibils Theatre.

Last night the magnificent opera Lucretia Borgia was given at the Solis to a rather poor audience, which is rather strange, and may be attributed to the cold and a desire of our fashionable people to remain alongside a comfortable fireplace; but, at all events, there was not much lost, as the whole opera was very poorly given.

The assassins of Don Federico Rucker have again tried to escape. I am afraid that before their trial and execution come off they will be 'non est inventus.' It appears the principal defender of these criminals has not yet returned the 'expediente.'

People to-day have been greatly excited with a rumour that in your city a revolution was to have taken place, and that two pieces of cannon had been seized; everyone asks who are the conspirators, and what the dickens they want to do by making a revolution. We all think here that now as Avellaneda has been elected President there was nothing for his opponents to do but to go about their daily labours peacefully, trusting to better luck next time.

July 9th.

In Buenos Ayres to-day in all probability you will be having a "jubilee" whilst we all, that is to say the commercial public of Montevideo, have had to go into the usual routine of business, and work to gain our day's salt; however, we shall have our turn on the 18th, when I hope that all Montevideans will do their utmost to celebrate the independence of the country in as good or better style than our friends on the opposite side of the River Plate. We have wished you today success in every way, and trust that next year, on this date, you will find yourself on a better footing, and in a prosperous state.

On the Bolsa to-day a calmness reigned that I have not seen for some days past; the brokers showed very little animation, and the sales amounted to very few, of which the following is a copy:—

Deuda Interna, Second Series—
20,000$ at 61 per cent. for end of month.
50,000 at 61¼ do. do.
Deuda Fundada—
11,000$ at 90 per cent. cash.

We had the pleasure to-day of welcoming on 'Change several friends from your city, among whom I noticed Messrs. Fred. Wanklyn, Pearson (of the firm of Samuel B. Hale and Co.), Bankier and Wilcox Ricketts. These gentlemen came down this morning from yours, and will probably return very shortly to your city.

The steamer Villa del Salto arrived this morning from yours and the Uruguayan ports, under the command of Captain Stewart, and will return to-morrow. She brought the following specie—

Francisco Gonzalez..	2240.00
Francisco Allo.....	544.40
Alberto Montaldo ..	1163.40
Bazale and Amezaga	422.40
Guerra y Lapuente..	2 00.00
A C Iglesias.....	151.00
Luis Costa.....	500.00
Adolfo Ohrt.....	800.00
E Perez.....	400.00
C L Anavitarte	1554.00
	9875.14

The Fluviales steamer Saturno, Captain Magnasco, also arrived from the same ports, and brought 122 passengers, and specie as follows—

Jauriguiberry	421.64
G Pouyard	463 00
Maua and Co.	12000.00
J Artas	500.91
	13,385.45

Making a total in all of twenty-three thousand two hundred and sixty dollars 59c., all of which is very welcome to us.

The steamers Thales and Humboldt of Messrs. Lamport and Holts' line, both arrived here to-day from Liverpool, but have not brought us any later dates than the Boyne.

The Pacific Steam Navigation Company's steamer Puno, arrived this afternoon on her homeward voyage with a full cargo and a good number of passengers. This steamer has been detained by stress of weather, that accounts for her being late.

From good authority I learn that we may shortly except Admiral Leroy here from the United States, who comes to replace the present naval representative of that nation Admiral Strong. Much feeling is expressed among foreigners here at the news of the inundation and consequent sweeping away of the three villages in Massachusetts, which caused the loss of a large amount of property and the lives of two hundred inhabitants.

Comestibles still remain dull and the only transactions I have heard of are as follows—

60 pipes French spirits at $85 per pipe in bond.
30 casks Gruyere Cheese at 24 cent; duty paid.
300 boxes Moore and Tudor brandy at $130 per box paid.

In produce some important transactions are said to have taken place, but they are kept very secret. The sudden rise in value of salted hides in Europe, it is said, is owed to a gentleman, partner in one of our most prominent produce exporting houses here. It appears that this gentleman sent a telegram from Rio Grande to Liverpool, about three weeks ago advising the deficit in this seasons, killing of 650,000 head of cattle, and this news has doubtless caused the sudden reaction. The rise in value here altho rather late, will give at least £30,000 more exchange to be drawn for in this market, and every little helps, as the old woman said, etc. The gentleman to whom I allude deserves a gold medal and a profit of £30,000 on his hide shipments.

As the much talked of Duke of Genoa is expected here to-morrow, the Italian committee for the ball to be given in his honor at our celebrated Club Libertad, have already begun their preparations, and yesterday they went to see my host 'Narizano' of the Confiteria Oriental, who has always been first and foremost in entertainments of the kind. The supper is to be on such a scale of magnificence as will only equal that given to our beloved Prince the Duke of Edinburgh. The gourmands, of whom we have plenty here, will probably keep off their feed so as to do ample justice to the gastronomic talents of the purveyor.

Two other balls are also on the 'tapis' in connection with this Princely visit, one at Doctor Bottini the telegraph concessionaire and whose hospitality is proverbial, and the other in the splendid new edifice of Doctor Carlos de Castro, who it is said is beautifying his house, both inwardly and outwardly, which I consider as an unnecessary expense, as he has a house that might vie with many palaces.

To-night we have Rigoletto at Solis, and it is to be hoped that it will be more successful than Lucrecia Borgia. The Ristori also performs to-night at Sbils's Theatre.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The mails by the Thales were delivered yesterday morning. The English papers are to the 10th ult., one day later than those by the Boyne; they contain no fresh news of any importance. The English Embassy at Berlin was broken into and robbed on the 9th, making the third foreign Embassy so treated within a short time.

The mail steamer Olbers did not sail till late on Thursday night. Those who went out to see their friends off did not get back to the Mole till near 11 o'clock p.m. A gentleman of the party called on us yesterday morning asking us to bring this delay under the notice of the agents. He says the tender did not leave the Mole for two hours after the appointed time, in consequence of having to wait for some one from the agents' office. The party, of which three were ladies, had nothing to eat or drink from the time they left the Mole till they got back to it. These are some of the inconveniences incidental to "seeing one's friends off". If the full of the Great Eastern of our "nearest and dearest" were going off either "for years, or for ever", we wouldn't go a step farther with them in such weather as the present, than the Hole in the Mole: No! not if they all promised to go to the bottom on the way home, and leave us £10,000 a year each.

Our esteemed colleague the Republica will insist that the owner of the little dog that created the revolution in Paseo Julio on Sunday last was an Englishman; the Republica's statement is contrary to evidence. The man himself declared in 'beautiful brogue,' with that peculiar, musical tone which cannot be imitated, that he was a 'provinciano,' and as such not amenable to Porteño laws. In Thursday's issue the Republica says his name is Pantersfield and consequently must be an Irishman. Here lies the error, colleague; there is not a Pantersfield in all Ireland, nor yet in England. You might find a Pattersfield north of the Tweed, but certainly not Pantersfield with any claim upon Adam. Even if your friend by any chance happened to be a Catamarqueño-Irishman, he would not have got into the mess he did with his little cur; Irishmen and their descendants have a knack of getting out of difficulties without going to the extreme of denying their country. Rest assured, colleague, that your friend from Catamarca would never pass muster in Galway.

A leading colleague announces that part of the war 'materiel' seized the other day, when the authorities seemed to be in such a funk about a revolution, consisted of a lot of toy cannon, which were magnified into 'cañones de mano.' Oh Heavings! Can this be true? We'll have all the nations on the face of the globe guffawing at us, if there is any more of this revolution balderdash.

We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from Captains V. Jones and C.W. McConachy, who came out in charge of the Argentine gunboats. We feel great pleasure in saluting them and their officers. Captain Jones on his return to England will probably bring out the ironclads now building there for this country: he is also engaged to take out 12 vessels to the Mexican Government. The new gunboats, which have been visited by so many thousands of patriotic Argentines since their arrival, are the finest specimens of the craft to be had for the money. They are 520 tons each, and were officered as follows on the way out:—

The Uruguay—
Captain Vernon Jones, R.N.
First officer, J.A. Powlitt.
Second do., C. Bowen.
Third do., A. McLeod.
Fourth do., J.R. Nuttall.
The Parana—
Captain C.W. McConachy.
First officer, J. McCarthy.
Second do. — Hepworth.

Mr. Powlitt, who has seen much service in the Grecian, Egyptian and other navies, will remain here, getting the rank of captain in the Argentine Navy.

The first train from Chivilcoy on Thursday was charged by a half starved cow near Merlo. The result was unsatisfactory, particularly for the cow. One of the carriages, in which was the celebrated land firm of Dennehy and Miroli, was thrown into the ditch. Nobody hurt but the senior partner, who got a kick in the shin from a huge Basque near him. Mr. Dennehy assures us that no blame can be attached to the engine driver, the defunct cow being alone to blame. We admire the animal's pluck, but not her want of judgment.

We publish to-day a long letter from our friend Dr. Gibbings, who went home in the Tycho Brahe. The escape of his son from drowning on the passage will be read with great interest by the Doctor's large circle of friends in the Plate. It was a most exciting incident, and our young friend mainly owes his preservation to his own courage and presence of mind. Captain Miller, his officers and crew behaved splendidly in the emergency.

Phillips again. About the end of next week this popular favourite will give an entirely new entertainment at the Victoria Theatre, for the benefit of his wife (neé Miss L. Lowther). The programme will be the most attractive and amusing that Mr. Phillips has ever offered to the Buenos Ayres public. All new and sparkling.

Mr. Daws has handed us the latest two numbers of Mr. Geary's admirable paper The Illustrated Sporting and Dramatic News. This publication has improved so much that it is bare justice to say that in its speciality it is leaving the News and Graphic miles behind. The numbers before us—the 30th May and 6th June—are so brimful of splendid engravings and interesting reading matter that it is impossible to do them justice in the limited space at our disposal. The Derby, Athletic Sports, The Stage, Dogs, Coaching, Yachting, Fishing, Swimming &c. have all the most splendid cuts devoted to their illustration. There is also a freshness and originality about the reading matter that cannot fail to attract, the criticisms and slashing style of the editor's department being quite out of the hum-drum groove which the London Press is so remarkable for. Mr. Daws sells single numbers of this attractive paper. It is all the rage in England now, being without a rival in its special line.

The Ninth of July fetes were splendid in the extreme. The crowds in the Plaza Victoria were enormous during the day, but at night beggared description. The fireworks were gorgeous. No accidents.

We lunched at the Casino near the Bolsa yesterday on real Turtle Soup for five paper dollars. We would not have believed it possible, with our London recollections of 3s., and often 5s.¾ per plate for the same delicacy. However, eating is believing in this case, and we can safely affirm that the Czar of all the Russias, when he lunched with the obese Corporation of London, had no finer turtle soup put before him than can be had by any of us every day at the Casino,

There was an enormous crowd at the military funeral service at the Cathedral yesterday, for the late General Zapiola. The troops, with arms reversed, muffled drums and colors, and all the other signs of military mourning, with the Dead March and other solemn music, made the spectacle a most imposing one.

The private residence of our literary friend Mr William Mackern was robbed the other day. A lot of valuable jewellery and our friend's best suit were carried off. We'll buy a revolver. From a librarian to an editor is but a step for a thief, and we have no clothes to spare these hard times.

We have received from a leading Argentine merchant an interesting article on the sale in Chicago of some thorough-bred cattle. What will our readers say to 14,000 pats for a bull! We will publish particulars as soon as possible.

Ducks and coffee! What a mixture. The Times of the 15th of May contains a full description of the silver casket in which our sable adversary King Coffee, of Ashantee, kept his gold dust. It was made in 1844 for King "Quako Duak" (Coffee's predecessor) for keeping his gold dust, by the great firm of Chubb and Son, for whom Messrs. Thompson & Co. are agents in this city. Coffee took the key with him when he ran away, but when the box was forced open there was not the value of a paper dollar in it of gold, or any other dust. Smart coon King C.

The 5th Regiment of the Line, Colonel Levalle, is expected in town to-day.

The only thing fresh from Rosario is that Dr. Fresco has resigned his judgeships in both the Civil and Criminal Courts, and that there is a block up in law matters in consequence.

Captain D. Lloyd Jones writes to us to say that of the 83 Welsh colonists in whose behalf we appealed to public charity some days ago, 53 will not touch a penny of any amount that may be subscribed. Those who were wrecked in the Electric Spark, however, are in need of assistance to enable them to replace some of their lost implements. We shall be happy to take charge of subscriptions.

The cold in Mercedes, was so great on Monday and Tuesday that bricklayers had to stop work. The thermometer marked two degrees below zew, Ristori made her first appearance in Montevideo on Thursday night last at the Cibils theatre. The Democracia says the prices are so terribly high that people wont go.

It has rained so heavily about Dolores that the country is flooded. The diligences have stopped running; no horses to be had.

There was a blow out at the great Tatay estancia on the Fourth. The sun was saluted with discharges of cannon, and all day long those on the estate kept up the fun.

The steamer Humboldt has on board five more boats for the Rowing Club, viz. One Ran dan and four pairs, which by great liberality on the part of Messrs. Lamport and Holt, are brought out on deck free of freight. She is expected here on Monday next.

There was a howl of discontent on the Northern Railway on Thursday night by numerous passengers who were left benighted at San Fernando and San, Isidro for the simple reason that the manager did not think it worth while to run the train announced on all the time bills to leave the Tigre at 8.5 p m. The consequence was that those persons who had been spending the day in those suburban retreat to had take a night's lodging at the nearest hotel or 'fonda.' The telegraph was likewise unavailable, and we have heard of several anxious households which were kept in suspense till morning, imagining all kinds of horrible things had happened to the absent members. It appears that in the opinion of the Manager of this line the 9th of July is not a feast day!

There was a grand National Telegraph blow-out at the Hotel La Paix on Thursday, Dr. Velez Sarsfield in the Chair. Dr. Sarsfield, Mr. Inspector General Burton, Mr. Secretary Leguizamon and others made splendid speeches. Twenty seven gentlemen sat down to dinner at 6 o'clock, and the same number went home at 11 p. m. sharp.

The Rev. Father Pius Devine, O. P., who intends leaving for the States on Wednesday next, will preach a farewell sermon to the English speaking Catholics of Buenos Ayres at San Roque church, to-morrow, after the mass at 11 o'clock.

BRITISH HOSPITAL

B. Ayres, 10th July, 1874.

To the Editors of the STANDARD.

Gentlemen,

The treasurer of the British Hospital begs thankfully to acknowledge receipt of three thousand one hundred and nine dollars and four rials currency—$3109.4 (½ proceeds of an entertainment given by the Black Diamonds.

ON 'CHANGE.

July 10, 1874.

Ounces	400
Sovs	122½
Pats	25
Nat. Bonds	74
Cedulas.....	80

Cedulas ruled a shade better to day, and things in general wore an easier aspect. Money was freely offered on stocks at 10 per cent, but not much taken. Exchange was dull save for drawers at ¼ and 49, at both of which rates there was a little done. In produce there is a good stir. Tallow has taken a sudden jump up: 100 bords mutton sold at 14½r., last week worth about 13½. Salted hides are also up, but none to be had. At the barracas all the deposit wool is selling fast, and the large galpones swept clean. At noon to-day it was announced that the Provincial Bank begins to draw to-morrow at 48¾: how much it will draw? is the question. The extract from the Bank statement published in yesterday's Pampa, attracted amongst moneyed men much notice; the item of Baring Bros. $1,239,723, showed clearly the exchange done up to 30th ult. The cash on hand is much under the previous month, and shows the season.

Gold in Bank, 498 429.
Paper do, 54,340,489.
Gold, Oficina de Cambios, 6,736,181 pats.

The Bank discounted freely to-day, and the discount brokers report money much easier.

At the Bolsa meeting to-day the following parties were elected—

Titulares.
Don Hugo Bunge, comerciante
" Mariano Unzue, do.
" Ramon Sarda, do.
" Manuel Correa Morales, corredor.
" Domingo Pita, do.
" Felix Pico (padre), do.

Don Mariano Casares, comerciante.
" Antonio Devotto, do.
" Agustin Drago, corredor.
Comision de Corredores.
Don Roberto Lawson.
" Enrique Perisena.
" Jose B. Sala.
" Teofilo Mendez.
" Jose Boada.

The sales to-day were—

Cedulas:

For cash	10,000	80
do	1,000	80½
For Saturday	31,400	80
End of month	10,000	79½

July 2 st	12 000	80
Sept. 30	20,000	80
July 15	20,000	79½
do	20,000	80
Sept 30	30,000	80½

In the liquidation, owing to the Bolsa election going on, business was interfered with, and not much done.

Mr. Moore, purser of the Boyne, was warmly welcomed on 'Change to-day. Also Mr. J. C. Simpson, who has come out to carry out his city improvement contract.

The news from Montevideo to-day is that Thompson Bonar's contract for loan has been approved of by Committee of House. There are still probabilities, therefore, of the new loan being done at Montevideo by the Legislature.

The French mail steamer Gironde sails tomorrow (11th), mails close at Capitania at 1 o'clock. Mr. A. F. Lamas leaves in Gironde for Rio, where he purposes making a short stay.

There were some unpleasant rumours on 'Change to-day about numerous arrests made or to be made by the Chief of Police. We know nothing of the matter, and many attribute the rumour to some political bears. The affair was talked of amongst the brokers.

The Pacific steamer Puno took £15,000 in gold from Montevideo for Europe.

On Wednesday last Mr. Oroño moved in the Senate for the Hacienda Memoria of 1873, which to the present has not been sent in. The House passed the motion.

Another new town is about to be formed; verily this is the age of new towns. We heard the other day of an application for mortgage upon a new town; we don't give the name. But there was not a man in the bank who knew where the town is, or ever heard of the place before. Still new towns must pay, for we see many making small fortunes in the business, and sales of charas, sites &c. daily, spite of the crisis. At Mr. Donnohy's office there is sometimes no getting in or out of the place, such is the crowd of Italians and Basques paying their monthly 'quotas' for lands in some of his new towns. The new town now started is the General Mitre, at the Salado station on the Southern Railway. Mr. Tabossi owner of the townland. Already half the lots in the new village are sold.

It would be well for the public, and particularly for the Campana public, if the papers of the new Campana Railway were dispatched at the Government House with but half the despatch that the materials for the road come out from Europe. Two more vessels in with materials, and, will it be credited, papers not yet through at the Government House. We suppose we shall be riding out to Campana in the train some of these days before, according to law, the works of the road have been commenced. Eight other vessels with materials, we hear, are on the way out. This looks in earnest.

Another shocking red tape hitch is the schooner Irene, Captain Wright, belonging to Messrs. Rooke Parry and Co., bound for Chupat, and ready for the last three weeks to start, would the Custom House people but despatch the Welsh colonists's luggage. The Irene takes 30 men down, and the matter is really a serious one, as if the delay continues the colonists will miss the season for wheat.

Captain Page was warmly welcomed to-day; his gunboats are praised by everyone. We had to-day the pleasure of a visit from Capt. Jones and Captain McConachy, who return immediately to England.

The firm of Negrotto and De Cousandier is dissolved. Mr. Negrotto winds up the concern, and carries on in his own name the hotel establishment at Flores.

The San Fernando Wharf Co. is still doing too large a business for the Northern Railway; 34 waggons asked for last week and 26 supplied. More rolling stock, Mr. Crabtree—

We have pleasure in calling attention to an advertisement in another column, stating that Mr Collett (who for some years has been engaged in the house of Messrs. C. T. Gatting and Co.) enters as partner into the business of Mr. Latimer H. Saunders, the well-known Insurance and General Agent.

We also note that Mr. Saunders goes to England in the R.M.S. Boyne on some highly important missions, as well as to extend and influence operations for the new firm, to which we heartily wish every success.

Per Puno, from Chile, we have the following advices—

Valparaiso, June 17.

Vessel abandoned British barque Silver Cloud. The British barque Minstrel King arrived at this port on the 13th June, landed the Captain and crew of the barque Silver Cloud, from Portland, Ogden, with wheat, and bound for England abandoned in Lat. 56.28 S, and long 86.36 W, owing to quantity of water she was making, which the pumps were unable to clear.

Freight Remarks:

The market has been particularly inactive during the fortnight under review, especially in regard to engagements for shipping, the European markets offering but little inducements for speculators at the present prices demanded for produce.

The Olbers cleared yesterday and took only £8,000 in gold which was less than what was expected, but sovereigns are very scarce and for export can't be got under a premium.

The Thales and Humboldt have arrived at Montevideo, and to-day we had London papers one day fresher than per Boyne. The London money market continues to be flooded with gold, good trade bills scarce and the chief demand comes from the stock exchange; some of our London colleagues anticipate the reduction of the Bank rate to 2 per cent. per annum. We extract the following as interesting to merchants in this market—

"A 'dead set' seems to have been made against the bonds of Uruguay, which have accordingly been run down in price, but it is doubtful whether the 'bears' can squeeze them to any lower figure. Amongst the many ridiculous things said in depreciation of Uruguay has been a coupling of its credit with that of Paraguay, the two countries being as distinct as the United States of America and Mexico. We take it that the main difference between Uruguay and Paraguay is precisely that which exists between America and Mexico. The one pays and the other doesn't. We suppose no one is so insane, or so big a bear, as to dispute the fact that Uruguay does pay the interest on her bonds, and also their heavy sinking funds. Whether she will be enabled to continue these payments is we believe, principally a question as to whether Montevideo will continue to be Montevideo in the amount of custom duties received, which are hypothecated for the service of the bonds, and from which their interest and sinking fund have been punctually paid. The bears may run down the bonds as much as they are able, but we doubt their ability to alter the facts of the case. Time will prove whether there is any reason in the great depreciation of the Uruguayan securities.

"The gross traffic receipts of the Central Argentine Railway for four weeks to the 5th April, on the 246 miles, from the port of Rosario to Cordova, amounted to £13,244. For the corresponding period of 1873 the receipts were £11,685, so that there is an increase of £1,669. The revenue of the current financial year to the same date was £165,254, as against £140,955 in the preceding year, or a total increase of £14,310.

"Sir,—As a holder of East Argentine Railway Shares, I write to inquire how it happens that these Shares are at 13½, although it was announced at the meeting yesterday that 7 per cent on each £20 Share would be paid at once—that is 14s per share? The Argentine Stands at about 97 for the Six per Cents, whilst the East Argentine Railway Guaranteed Seven per Cent. for forty years stands at about 65, although nearly half the line is open, and the remainder will be finished this year, and will be constructed by first-rate and prosperous contractors. A purchaser of these shares will receive about 11 per cent for the capital he employs.

"A SHAREHOLDER."

"The Manchester papers announce the failure of Messrs. Ellison, Whiting, and Co., in the timber trade, of Liverpool, and of Mr. H. H. Nathan, wool merchant, of Bradford. The liabilities in the former case amount to between £60,000 and £80,000, and in the latter to about £35,000. At a meeting of the creditors of Messrs. Lister, Greenhough, and Co., wool staplers, of Bradford, the liabilities were stated at £31,029, and assets at £4,194, and it was resolved to wind up the estate in liquidation.

The London and River Plate Bank stock is a favourite stock in the London market; we note the £40 per shares are selling at £55, we extract the following—

"At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the London and River Plate Bank, Limited, held on Tuesday, the usual interim dividend of 5 per cent. for the half-year ended 31st March last, free of income tax, was declared, payable the 25th inst."

The following respecting the Fray Bentos meat fabric, shows what a steady excellent business this Co. is doing—

"The report of Liebig's Extract of Meat Company, to be presented on the 4th June, shows a net profit of £46,346, out of which it is proposed to declare a dividend at the rate of 6 per cent., or 24s. per share, and a bonus of 2 per cent., or 8s. per share, and to add £2,000 to the reserve funds, carrying forward £2,520."

The following has been favored as by a subscriber; the data are no doubt most important and show the business going in England in Real estate and bonds and mortgages, how these figures would compare with what in the same line is doing in this market it is difficult to say. In fact not even the escribano here ever had the industry to make out a statement of the total amount of sales of real estate in the great land year of 1872, the figure is roughly estimated at five hundred millions pats. The following is the extract referred to—

"According to a computation recently made by the solicitors of Birmingham there are about 400 conveyances of land and nearly the same number of mortgages on every day in England and Wales. One quarter of these—say 60,000—are transactions in which the amount of purchase or mortgage money is under £200; more than half are under £500; three-fourths are under £1,000; total number per annum, 240,000."

Mr. Bazar's ram auction to-day gave splendid results. The best ram, Rambouillet, born in the country, fetched 6,100 m/c buyer Sr. Portalé. Another 5,200, same buyer; another 4,000 buyer Sr. Vivot; another 3,500 buyer Mr. Fresh; another 5,000 Mr. Duggan. For the Rambouillets from France 5,000, 4,800, 4,000, 3,900 and 3,500 were obtained; buyers Messrs. Crisol, Duggan, Armesto, Girado and Plaza. Other Rambouillets fetched 5,600, 4,200 and 3,000, same buyers. It will be seen that the rams reared in the country brought the highest prices. This is most significant.

SAVINGS BANK BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Calle Cangallo--103

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the principal cities of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following he noble example of their firm in Montevideo, offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUÁ & Co.,
M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM,
E. DE LAS CARRERAS.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wish can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

DYSENTERY, CHOLERA, FEVER AND COUGHS, COLDS, &c.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Med. Staff)
CHLORODYNE
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the Inventor of CHLORODYNE that the story of the Defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne, that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—The Times, July 12, 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

THIS INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while Medical men extol its virtues most extensively using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Cramp, Hysteria, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to he College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport hat he had received information to the effect that he only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet Dec. 31, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay:—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after 18 month's severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports [Dec. 1865] that nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.

Extract from Medical Times, Jan. 12, 1866.—"Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would no thus be singularly popular did it not 'supply a want and fill a place.'"

Extract from the General Board of Health London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strong r are we convinced of the immense value of his remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as CHLORODYNE, from which frequent fatal results have followed.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journa Aug. 1, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that is s always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bott

Max Havelaar

BY MULTATULI.

It is difficult to say whether Max Havelaar is more interesting as a novel or powerful as a political pamphlet. From either point of view it is of rare and first rate excellence. In its life-like actuality it constantly recalls Defoe, while in its tender and original humor it suggests Sterne in his best moods.—"Westminister Review," April, 1868,

• • • That is the whole story. A book which combines more humor, knowledge of character, high thought, deep pathos, and vigorous political intelligence than any we have read for a long time.—"Evening Star," Feb. 14, 1868.

The story is remarkably clever, a rollicking, eccentric, grotesque and satirical humor overflowing on every page. It is unlike any other book that we have read • • • Some of the episodes, that of Saidjah, for instance, are magnificent creations of an imaginative genius of no ordinary kind.—"British Quarterly Review," April, 1868.

It is a novel in form, but in reality a political pamphlet. The revelations contained in it startled the country, and have ever since formed the ground for contention in the legislature. Although Max Havelaar may seem less attractive to many who read nothing but novels than the morbid and silty stories which are in demand at circulating libraries, yet by other and more judicious readers it will be heartily welcomed.—"Daily News," Feb. 10, 1868.

A more stinging satire of the lower propensities of the Dutch could hardly be conceived than that embodied in the Amsterdam coffee broker, Batavus Drystubble, (who) stands out as one of the most remarkable embodiments of money grubbing Pharisaism which literature has yet produced, Thackeray himself could not have surpassed this scathing page ('God to directs all things that orthodoxy leads to wealth." etc.). It is immortal, come what may to the book that contains it.—"Contemporary Review," pril, 1868.
